3. Click on
"Middlesex Community College" in the 'My Library
Resources' channel

The screenshot shows the myCommNet interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Faculty', 'Employee', 'Library', and 'How to'. Below this, the 'My Library Resources' section is active, displaying a list of links. The link for 'Middlesex Community College' is highlighted with a red circle. An arrow from the text on the left points to this link. The left sidebar contains 'My Library' information, including instructions on how to find books and articles, quick links, and faculty quick links.

Now you can access books, articles, and more!

This screenshot shows the same myCommNet interface but with the search options expanded. The 'FIND BOOKS' section includes a search box and a dropdown menu set to 'Keyword'. Below it are links for 'eBooks (NetLibrary)' and 'Find books in other libraries'. The 'FIND ARTICLES' section includes a link to database descriptions and a form for requesting full-text articles. The left sidebar remains the same, but the 'Library News' section now shows 'On Display in August'.
